Mandatory Passenger Information for travel to/from USA

For travel to & within the US, US authorities require passenger information and details for the address for the first night.

Personal details that must be provided are all first, middle and last names (as shown in the passport), date of birth & gender. The information must be provided as soon as possible or no later than 72 hours before departure. For bookings made within 72 hours before departure, the information must be provided at the time of booking.

If this information is missing, you may be denied boarding. It is the passenger's responsibility to provide the information to SAS on time. If you have applied for & received a Redress Control or Known Traveler Number from the US authorities, it can also be provided.

Information about the travel document & address for the first night in the US must be provided no later than at check-in.

For more information: Privacy notice.

Electronic Travel Authorization (ESTA) is mandatory for all passengers who travel without a visa to / via the USA. ESTA application must be completed online before traveling. Apply here.
